

Service Report from West Marredpally, Secunderabad

We are pleased to inform all of you that West Marredpally Center (Secunderabad) conducted a two day program with the canopy theme "Happy Living". Sister.Shivani was the main speaker of this programme. We thank almighty authority God Father Shiva and all the dadijis and senior brothers for giving us the inspiration from time to time and making this programme a grand success.

The inauguration of the insight session "Awakening with Brahma Kumaris" was done at Surabhi Gardens, Secunderabad. The canopy theme for this session was "Happy Living".

Bro.Karuna, Vice Chairperson, Media Wing, Sis.Chandrika, Co-ordinator, Youth Wing, Sis.Manju, Programme Coordinator were present at the inauguration. Sis.Chandrika started the programme with a talk on why we are conducting this programme and what is the aim of this programme. Sis.Manju welcomed the gathering.

The session concluded with a Public Programme where Dadi Ratanmohiniji and Sis.Chandrika were the main speakers. Bro.Karuna and all the sisters of the twin cities were present at the function.

More than 1500 people were benefited from the two day programme apart from message being spread through out the twin cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad. Hoardings were put up at all major junctions of the twin cities and it was widely advertised in the news papers. Both the print and electronic media covered all the four sessions and also separately interviewed sister Shivani. TV5 and Bhakti Channel also telecasted the programme live.--
