

“International Women Day” Celebrated at Shanti Sarovar, Sirsa on 8 March’2009

A seminar on “Creator of New Age - Women Power” was organized under “International Women Day”. All prominent ladies from every corner of the city (Mrs. Kamlesh Chahar-Distt. Child Welfare Officer, Sirsa, Mrs. Rekha Bansal – Member of Juvenile Court, Sirsa, Mrs. Asha - Owner of a famous Hotel Jai Villas, Mrs. Saumi Sinha, Professor of Physiotherapy College of JCD Vidyapeeth, Mrs. Krishna Yadav- Police Inspector etc....) participated in this Seminar.

Mrs. Sunita Setia – Chairperson, Improvement Trust, Sirsa graced the occasion as Chief Guest and said that while performing the duties towards family and society, a woman must spare some time for spirituality to empower herself.

B.K. Bindu, In her touching address said that only by too much application of western style costumes and materialism, a woman is losing her self-respect today. She added that an Indian woman should not be a quiet idol in a temple but she should survive in such a form of Shiv Shakti by adopting her innate qualities of soul in nature and changing our daily routine with divine heritage.

BK Krishna Behan welcomed all and said today our Almighty Godfather Shiva has descended on this earth to aware a woman and empower her with divine powers by his corporeal medium Prajapita Brahma. So we should connect our soul with Supreme Soul to experience the powers of self-change. At the end all were offered Brahma Bhojan. This program was given good coverage by all local and national newspapers.
