

The Public Appraisal

On the occasion of the 65th anniversary of the Victory in the Great World War II and as a symbol of strengthening the friendship and cultural ties between India and Russia, Sudha Rani Gupta, General Director of the social organization Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University in Moscow, was rewarded with the Order of the First Class "For the Nobility of Intentions and Pursuits". This high social award was presented on the 17th of April, 2010 on behalf of the Presidium of the Council of Veterans of the Ministry of Internal Affairs (MIA) of Russia by Yuri Lyasle, Lieutenant-colonel (rtd.), member of the Council of Veterans, MIA of Russia. Having thanked Mr. Yuri for his high appraisal of the 20 years activities of the University in Russia, on behalf of the organization and herself, Sis. Sudha heartily assured that the service for the welfare of the society and reviving the spiritual and moral values would continue with still more inspiration and enthusiasm.

The Order of First Class
"For the Nobility of Intentions and Pursuits"

№ 332

The Council of Veterans of the Central Office
Ministry of Internal Affairs
Russian Federation

By decision of the Presidium of the Council of Veterans of the Central Office of the Ministry of Internal Affairs, Russia

Sudha Rani Gupta
is rewarded with the Order of First Class
"For the Nobility of Intentions and Pursuits"

15th April, 2010

Chairman I.N. Storozhenko