

Actioning BAP DADA'S Avyakt Murli of 31st Dec 2010.

Om Shanti

Our Beloved Baap Dada expressed his heartfelt desire to spread vibrations of peace to the tired & peaceless souls of this world in his latest murli. Different souls voice of sufferings, are reaching Baap Dada's ears. An ocean of mercy that he is, his desire is we children selected by him, take time out & give to this world vibrations of peace & good wishes.

On hearing this instruction our beloved Nalini Didiji, immediately swung into action. Didiji immediately put together a seva plan, selected a group of students from Ghatkopar Centre, Mumbai to visit public places like crowded Railway stations, Bus depots, Public Parks to give Yog Daan . Thus this "Mansa Sewa" was actioned upon from 1st of January itself.

Every day a group of around 13 to 15 BK's visit these public places stand in silence for 30 minutes & spread .vibrations of peace both during morning (7.45 am) & evening (5.30 p.m) This seva has public appreciation too. Lots of people come & ask what the group is doing & on being told they are spreading vibrations of peace to the world, they also come & stand for 2-5 minutes to make a contribution. (see photograph attached)

So far 6900 minutes of peaceful vibrations were donated to this world standing in public places. The same will continue till 21st of january.
Om Shanti
