Four-Day All India Conference on Gita Episode Inaugurated

Spirituality must for better life and society-Sant Darshan Singh

Gurgaon, Nov. 17: “ We are living in the fag-end of Kaliyug characterized by climax of irreligiousness and unrighteousness which have warranted the divine descent of incorporeal Supreme Soul or ‘Ek Omkar’ to re-establish Satyuga or a better world”.

Nirmal Mahamandaleshwar Sant Darshan Singh, President, Sat Darshan Sadhu Samaj from Haridwar said this while inaugurating the Four-Day 2nd All India Conference on “Repetition of Gita Episode” organized by Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya at its Om Shanti Retreat Centre here today.

He said that the divine teaching of Supreme Soul for all human beings, is to adopt spiritual wisdom, principles and lifestyle in order to transform human life and society from bitter to better.

Dr. Chhaya Rai, Scholar on Hindu Philosophy from Jabalpur speaking on the topic ‘Repetition of Gita Episode’ said that today mankind is at the cross road of confusion on the priority of duty towards fulfillment of self-interest or social responsibility.

Bhagwad Gita inspires us to take care of society’s broader interests within which our self interest are automatically taken care of, she stressed.

Rajyogini BK Usha, Sr. Rajyoga teacher from Mt. Abu delivering the keynote address said that the signs & symptoms of Kaliyug as described in scriptures are being widely experienced today.

In similar vein, incorporeal Supreme Soul’s divine work of re-establishing Satyugi golden aged world is also being undertaken today through the corporeal medium of Prajapita Brahma as have been mentioned in scriptures, she emphasized.

Rajyogi BK Brij Mohan, Chief Spokesman of Brahma Kumaris earlier speaking about the aim & objects of the Conference, said that the practice and promotion of soul consciousness in remembrance of Supreme Soul are the basis for restoration of universal peace, harmony, happiness, brotherhood and order in the world. This is the quintessence of Bhagwad Gita which is being taught now again by the Supreme Being through the medium of Brahma, he averred.

Rajyogini BK Shanti, Director, Sirifort Centre of Brahma Kumaris conducting mass meditation to the congregation said that developing inner powers through Rajyoga meditation is the key to inculcate spiritual knowledge, values and habits in our life.

Besides the inaugural session, two more open sessions were held today on topics such as “What is the necessity of God’s divine descent again when Shrimad Bhagwad Gita is there?”; “Whether God’s re-establishment of Satdharam was through violent or non-violent means?”. Eminent speakers delivered their views on these topics and enlightened the gathering.
