

Brahmakumaris Sending Largest Stock of Relief Materials to Nepal For Earthquake Victims

Mumbai - 01 May 2015

Brahmakumaris, world's largest women organization having its meditation study centers across world's 120 countries has been carrying out "Relief Work" in Nepal after fateful Earthquake hit the Himalayan country. Around 5,000 "Relief Workers" are doing relief work round the clock since the day quake hit the capital region of Nepal & surrounding areas. B.K.Ramsingh ji .Vice Chairman of Brahmakumaris Nepal said " We are doing our best to reach inner parts of region as there are still many people who have not yet received any help. Also we are serving locals with food-water facilities as well as at Hospitals with our team of Doctors. We are very grateful to India for extending immediate help in this hour of crisis. At the moment what we urgently need is waterproof tents for those who are sitting on roads"

At Mumbai the NGO has started a Collection Center to collect and transport Relief Materials received from all over Maharashtra. Material is being sent by Air from Mumbai to Katmandu. Today Indian Railways has extended its support by carrying "Relief Material" from Mumbai to Raxaul totally FREE by Karmabhumi Express Train on Monday & Tuesday. The train will leave from Lokmanya Tilak Terminus (Kurla) at 11.20 am on Monday 04 May 2015 & Reach Raxaul at 6 pm on Tuesday. On Tuesday 05 May 2015 train will leave from Lokmanya Tilak Terminus (Kurla) at 15.20 pm & Reach Raxaul on Wednesday night. Raxaul is a station at India-Nepal border in Bihar. Brahmakumaris have a Center at Raxaul as well as at Birgunj thats exactly 5 Kms from Raxaul. All the Goods sent by train would be accepted by 'Brahmakumaris Relief Workers' at Raxaul and they will be distributed systematically across Nepal.

Rajyogi Nikunj From Brahmakumaris Public Relations Services who is overlooking Relief Operations from Mumbai said "Anybody from Maharashtra who wants to send Relief Material (Tarpaulin, Blankets, Dry Food like Biscuits,Khakhra etc) can pack their material in following dimensions " 90x90x60 cms" (Centimeter) preferably in boxes. Please pack your Material in such a way that it does not loosens up or opens up. Also pack it in "White Sack Material" (Goni). Please see sample picture of packaging. The goods should reach 'Brahmakumaris Collection Center' late by Sunday 03 May 2015 - 09 pm for 04 May Morning Train & by Monday 04 May 2015 - 09 pm for Tuesday 05 May afternoon Train at :
