

From: Bengaluru-Basavanagudi Brahma Kumaris <basavanagudi.blr@bkivv.org>

Om Shanti to the divine family,

International women day - a global day to celebrate the women spirit. As a mark of this great event Brahmakumaris Varadani bhawan witnessed the event on march 4th Sunday evening with the graceful presence of

Rajayogini B K Ambikaji sub-zonal head, V V Puram, Chairperson-SpARC wing and the program included the other great personalities of the society

- Dr. A Vanaja, Principal scientist, Center for societal missions and special technologies, NAL.
- Dr. Rajani P, Dy. Director, Mental health, Government of Karnataka.
- Dr. Sandhya Rani, Alternative therapist.
- Smt. Mamata Devaraj, Social worker and yoga trainer.

At the event the contribution of the women to the society and also the upcoming day to day challenges about their ultimate solution was discussed. The importance of spiritual upliftment of women and the Brahmakumaris as a platform to provide the spiritual accessibility to the women so which in turn helps her comprehensive empowerment and a shield to safeguard herself for the upcoming challenges made to realize.

The program ended with a blessing card distribution by respected sister Rajyogini B K Ambikaji and the gathering of 400 enjoyed the holy feast. Please find concerned event photos.

On godly service,
B K Ambika.