

California: Sister Chandru and prominent Interfaith Leaders were called upon to bless the 40th Governor of California Gavin Newsom on the Inaugural Day.

Sis. Chandru's blessing to him was to work together in partnership with God and People with Energy, Vigour and Enlightenment. As all clergies and leaders joined her in "Om Shanti" chant, the entire space reverberated with peace.

Governor Newsom and his wife Jennifer became very emotional when all the faith leaders circled around them to give a collective blessing.

As a response to the entire Interfaith Unity Service, the Governor tweeted:

"What an incredible blessing to start our day with prayers for California from faith leaders all across our state. Feeling inspired and humbled."
