

A brief report of Divya Youth Forum by Youth Wing

Youth Wing of Brahma Kumaris conducts DYF – Divya Youth Forum every year since last 3 years for BK Professional Youth's self- development and sustenance in their spiritual life. This year, DYF for 3 separate groups – Kumar, Kumaris and Young Teachers were held at Omshanti Retreat Centre (ORC), Delhi from 19thSept 2019 to 22ndSept 2019 simultaneously. Theme for Kumar group was "Purity is Real Beauty", for Kumaris " Hum So, So Hum" and for Teachers, theme was "Ek Bal Ek Bharosa". Total numbers of participants in Kumar group was around 80, Kumari group around 90 and Teachers were 65. Out of them, 42 were from Engineering professions, 8 from medical professions, 16 from Management professions, 18 from Teaching professions, and around 100 were graduates and 50 post graduates. All the participants were minimum 5 years in spiritual lifestyle & at least graduate by education.

In this forum, all activities were designed in a unique way. Participants were divided in small groups of 8-10 and a senior Youth wing committee member guided them as mentor. Sessions were conducted in terms of various activities like workshops, focused group discussions and other experiential learning techniques. All Youth participants actively participated and shared their learning through Songs, Skits, Poster makings etc.

Respected Rajyogi BK BrijMohanbhaiji & BK Ashadidi from ORC, Delhi, BK Chandrikadidi from Mahadevnagar, Gujarat, BK Pushpadidi and BK Shukladidi from Delhi shared deep understandings of each subject, inspired the Youth and guided them for preparing action plan. Each group has prepared their action plan for the year. Their facilitators will inspire them time to time for the fulfilment of their action plan till next DYF.

On 22nd Sept., a huge gathering of Delhi youth group was also invited. Hon'ble Speaker of Loksabha, Shri Om Birla & other dignitaries were present in the program. They appreciated the activities done by our institution and invited our Exhibition Bus to his residence. It was a wonderful moment spending a good lot time with Shri Om Birla.
