

Sisters Pratibha and Urvashi attended the Africa Climate Summit. It was a great opportunity to meet many dignitaries.

Over 20 heads of State and hundreds of delegates including members of the diplomatic community, ordinary farmers and members of the indigenous communities also attended.

Chilando Chitangala is the current Mayor of Lusaka , Zambia

Veronic Jakarasi from the Forestry Commission of Zimbabwe

H.E. President of Kenya Dr. William Ruto said : until the lion learns how to write the hunters are glorified. Now the lion has learned to write.

Debt and Poverty. It is better to die of debt rather than poverty.

There is an African saying : if you want to go fast go alone but if you want to go far go with others. We want to go fast but also far.

John Kerry :

Special Presidential Envoy for Climate.

Pollution is created by Man .

Man is a threat to Man. We do not need any rockets and high technical things to save our climate.

Science gives us knowledge.

Wisdom gives us Life.

Mama Doing Good Organization.

There was a youth panel from the Kenya Student Assembly .

They were happy that they were involved in signing the declaration. They also requested the government to involve them in the implementation.

Quote : Do not put your foot in our shoes as it will not fit you.

President of the European Commission - Ursula von der Leyen

Naima Ali Hared - Founder and CEO

(Mother and Child Welfare Organization)

Ndeye Khady Senegal Director of NGO

Mercy Karunditu – Director of Field Programs (Trees for the Future)

We shared the message with the delegates personally that the Brahma Kumaris Environmental Policy aims to encourage all of us throughout the organisation to feel that we are guardians of the Earth's resources.

The five main attitudes that will empower our environmental approach are:

- Living with Simplicity
- Buying Compassionately
- Using Economically
- Learning Continuously
- Sharing Generously