

Bangalore (Karnataka): Rajyogi B.K. Mruthyunjaya, Executive Secretary, Brahma Kumaris, Mount Abu was honoured with Aryabhata International Award-2008 in recognition of his contribution towards promoting Spiritual Wisdom worldwide. Award was initiated in the name of an Indian famous Scientist called 'Aryabhata'. The Award was presented by the 'Aryabhata Cultural Organisation', Bangalore.

Distinguished guests present in the honouring ceremony were: Justice Dr. Shivraj V. Patil, Former Judge, Supreme Court of India, Lt. Gen. G.S. Dhillon, Dr. Jaymala, President, Karnataka Film Industries Corporation, Dr. Mahesh Joshi, Senior Director, Doordarshan, Shri Vishweshwara Bhatt, Editor, Vijaya, Karnataka, Prof. H. L. N.Rao, President, Aryabhata Cultural Organisation, Bangalore.

While welcoming the awardies and other distinguished guests Dr. H. L. N. Rao said that the selection committee of Aryabhata Cultural Organisation feel proud to honour Rajyogi Brahma Kumar Mruthyunjaya. Presenting the Award Justice Dr. Shivraj V. Patil said: I feel proud to honour Rajayogi BK Mruthyunjaya, Executive Secretary of Brahma Kumaris Global Spiritual Organisation. He further added I had the privilege of visiting the World Headquarters Mount Abu and participated in several programmes at Delhi and other places. The Aryabhata Cultural Organisation has selected a wonderful personality from the Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University.

Rajyogi B.K. Mruthyunjaya in his acceptance said that it is an honour to Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidhyalaya and its teaching by the Supreme Being. I am very happy that the Spiritual Education and Rajyoga Meditation is being recognised in the society. Spiritual Education and Rajyoga Meditation is the solution for all the modern problems including tension, depression, terrorism and social evils.