

Press Release

Adopt Spirituality for Better Performance & Relationships – Marc Fourcade

New Delhi, Oct 4: Mr. Marc Fourcade, Motivational Speaker & Management Consultant from France said that practice of spirituality and rajyoga meditation was essential for enhancement of Emotional Intelligence which was needed for better performance and harmonious interpersonal relationships.

Mr. Marc who was working with a group of scientists on Emotional Intelligence for last 15 years, said this as special guest of Honour in the second day public function on “Global Festival for Receiving God’s Powers and Blessings” organised at Brahma Kumaris at Siri Fort Auditorium here today.

Narrating his close encounter with death, in an out of body experience some 29 years ago, he said that it was God’s powers and blessings which rescued him from deep depression and death and made his life peaceful, blissful and happy, when he came in contact with Brahma Kumaris Institution.

Mr. Rakesh Mehta, Chief Secretary, Govt. of Delhi giving his greetings on the occasion said that increasing adoption of renewable energy sources and a need-based life style was essential to combat consumerism, economic recession and climate change. For that one should practice spirituality and rajyoga meditation to experience and spread true peace, love and happiness in life and society that was the aim of this Global Festival, he stressed.

Rajyogini B.K. Mohini, Director, Rajyoga Center, USA in her keynote address said that while India’s canopy theme for Global Festival was “Experiencing God’s Powers and Blessings”, the topic for overseas countries was “Experiencing Inner Powers and Protection”. She said that along with inner powers, God’s power and blessings were equally needed for sustaining pure and positive thoughts, good characters and virtuous conduct among people which were essential to get God’s blessing and nurturing.

Mr. A Parshuraman, UNESCO Director in India, speaking as Guest of Honour said that UNESCO is working in consonance with Gandhi ji’s teachings like that of Brahma Kumaris, for promoting peace and sustainable development in society.

While Mr. Yogesh Mujal, CMD, Munjal Showa Ltd., stressed on spiritual upliftment of people ensuring good civic behavior of public. Mr. VP Bajaj, CMD, Bajaj Motors Ltd., maintained that Rajyoga Meditation of Brahma Kumaris could bring peace, harmony and success in personal, professional and social life.

Pandit Pulkit Mishra, Bharat Gaurav Presidential Award Winner for Kathak Dance enthralled the audience with his classical Kathak presentation.

An electronic symbol of Global Festival was inaugurated by speakers on the stage. This symbol will serve as emblem for the ongoing seven week long Global Festival celebrations in India.

Earlier at the National Launching of this Global Festival at Ramlila Ground here yesterday, prominent personalities including Mr. L.K. Advani, Leader of opposition Lok Sabha; Swami Agnivesh, World Arya Samaj Leader, etc. were unanimous on adoption of spirituality, simplicity, need-based & virtuous life style to contain mental, moral, social, economic, cultural and political pollution and degradation.

BK Sushant,
National Media Co-ordinator,
Brahma Kumaris, New Delhi
Mob: 9350922333