Dadiji gave her blessing and spoke on the occasion.

“Dadiji said that Peace is our innate quality, we forgot that because we forgot ourselves as who am I and confused it with our body, we thought that I and mine are same; in reality I am a Soul and this body is mine. Since we confused ourselves with this “my body” as I, We are now in sorrow and problems.

Everyone wants peace, but how can we obtain peace. All are now in the bondage of this body and hence all the 5 vices are making us to do all wrong actions. It is very easy to obtain peace, learn meditation, join for a 7days course conducted by Brahma kumaris, it is free, and obtain everlasting peace.

Like Peace, Happiness is also our innate quality, there is no medicine like Happiness, once you have happiness, and you will get Peace, Health and Happiness,

You have to give this to experience it; you can give only if you have.

We are the children of God, should not be beggars, God is the ocean of Peace, Happiness and Love,

Dadiji suggested everyone to learn meditation and experience everlasting Peace and Happiness.”
