

Puttaparthi, AP, Nov 23: Mr. N. Chandrababu Naidu, Hon. Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh State, India inaugurated Shiv Darshan Art Gallery and appreciated the services being rendered by the Brahma Kumaris to the society.

In his address the Chief Minister said that as a politician I can provide Pension, Ration Cards and Insurance, all materialistic happiness, but if you want permanent spiritual Happiness, Brahma Kumaris are giving you. We need both food to live and happiness of mind and enthusiasm. That happiness of mind is available at Brahma Kumaris Centers.

He further said that it is his previous birth good deed, that he could do the inauguration of Brahma Kumaris Centre at Puttaparthi, the birth place of Satya Sai Baba. He said that every pilgrim visiting the Samadhi of Satya Sai Baba must visit here and seek the divine knowledge. He congratulated Brahma Kumaris saying that BK sisters are service personified. He gave hearty congratulations to Brahma Kumaris for everything they do and said that, if we have that inspiration, we will be free from all problems.

Chief Guest Mr R J Ratnakar, Trustee, Sri Sathya Sai Central Trust, Puttaparthi, Rajyogi BK Karuna, Chief of Multi Media of the Brahma Kumaris from Mount Abu, Rajyogi BK Mruthyunjaya, Executive Secretary of the Brahma Kumaris, Mount Abu, BK Ambika, Sub-Zonal Incharge from Bengaluru, BK Laxmi, Incharge of Shiv Darshan Art Gallery and many other dignitaries graced the occasion.

Brahma Kumaris Shiv Darshan Art Gallery is having 75 feet height, 300 feet width, which was in construction from past 4 years is number one in terms of height in Andhra Pradesh and there are 23 stalls inside the museum