

Brahma Kumaris Centre in Moscow
/November 26th, 2023/

Russia celebrated the 34th Anniversary
by presenting performance
“My Eternity is Like a River” dealing with the theme of reincarnation,
in the Concert Hall of Mayak Mira (Lighthouse of the World)

The programme began with the greetings by Sudha Didi, Bro. Vijay and the invited guests.

What makes us find answers? Are these our questions? Or our sincere desire to learn? Or the time has come to open all the secrets?

Didi Sudha, General Director, performed the role of the owner of the bright and beautiful Castle of Eternity. She answered exciting questions asked by the hero of the play, inquisitive reporter Darya. The questions asked were such which have occupied the minds of people in the world for centuries – What happens with a soul when a person dies? Can we choose our future birth and what it depends on? How can we change the present, if it is the result of our past? Can God, the Almighty help us to change our fortune?

A serious conversation about the aspects of spiritual knowledge was illustrated with excerpts from the film "Reincarnation", with songs and dances.

The roles in the play were performed by professional actors: soloist of the State Academic Operetta Theater Konstantin Uzhva (Time Keeper) and theater and film actress Daria Krakhmaleva (Reporter), the Soul Dance was performed by professional ballet dancer Anna Wellington.

Writer, chairperson of the organising committee of Golden Pen of Russia Svetlana Savitskaya rewarded Didi Sudha with a Leo Tolstoy medal for Guidance and Education. Head of a literary lounge, artist Tatyana Kuznetsova presented her painting with the words that Brahma Kumaris Centre gives light like the sun and flowers stretching to the sun symbolize people attracted to spirituality.

