Karachi Event

GRAND SPIRITUAL DIWALI AT KARACHI CENTRE

The visit began in Karachi with a grand celebration titled “Spiritual Diwali,” attended by nearly 800 people. The event featured devotional performances by the kumaris, including soulful singing and a symbolic “shaktiyan” presentation that highlighted feminine spiritual strength. Dance sequences illuminated by candlelight added a serene visual touch, complementing Sister Bhawna’s meditation session. The evening concluded with the exchange of souvenirs and warm greetings from participants.

Honors and Exchanges in Karachi

CULTURAL RESPECT AND INTERFAITH APPRECIATION

During her stay in Karachi, Sister Bhawna received several thoughtful gifts from community representatives. The Chief Coordinator of the Hindu Council Pakistan presented her with an honorary book, while delegates from Ratneshwar Temple offered additional mementos. In a traditional gesture of respect, a BK brother honored her by placing a ceremonial turban upon her head. These moments reflected the mutual admiration and harmonious relationships nurtured throughout the visit.

Visit to Baba's Home

WARM INTERACTIONS WITH THE LOCAL BK FAMILY

Sister Bhawna also visited Baba's Home in Karachi, where she received a heartfelt welcome from the local Brahma Kumaris family. The gathering provided an opportunity for informal conversations and personal interaction, strengthening the bond between the visiting teacher and the Karachi BK community. The environment was filled with simplicity, affection, and spiritual warmth.

MEETING WITH DADA GIANCHAND VASWANI

A REFLECTIVE EXCHANGE ON VEGETARIAN LIVING

Another significant moment in Karachi was Sister Bhawna's visit to the residence of Dada Gianchand Vaswani.

Their conversation focused on the spiritual and health benefits of adopting a vegetarian lifestyle. The discussion highlighted the shared values and mutual respect between both parties, contributing to the broader message of peaceful and conscious living.

Hyderabad Program

'THE PEACE WITHIN' A MEANINGFUL SPIRITUAL GATHERING

On 22 November 2025, Sister Bhawna visited Hyderabad, the birthplace of Brahma Baba, where the local BK family hosted a beautifully organized program titled "The Peace Within." Participants from Hyderabad and surrounding areas, including many kumaris, attended the session. The program combined meditation, spiritual discourse, and heartfelt interactions, creating a deeply uplifting experience for all present.

Souvenirs and Community Bonds in Hyderabad

A TRIBUTE TO HYDERABAD'S SPIRITUAL HERITAGE

During her stay, Sister Bhawna received a special souvenir book titled “Hyderabad and Beyond” from Mr. Mubin Mangnejo and Mr. Zafar Junejo, symbolizing the city's cultural and spiritual legacy. The visit also included group photographs and warm receptions from the local BK family, reflecting the strong organisational spirit and heartfelt love of the Hyderabad community.

MITHI SPIRITUAL SESSION

INCARNATION OF GOD SHIVA

A DEVOTIONAL GATHERING IN MITHI

On 24 November, the visit continued in Mithi with a well-attended session titled “Incarnation of God Shiva,” held inside a Krishna Temple. The people of Mithi welcomed Sister Bhawna with exceptional warmth. The local BK family had made excellent arrangements, and the community showed great enthusiasm throughout the event. The visit included interactions with local devotees and visits to several temples, creating an atmosphere of deep devotion and spiritual openness.

Community Appreciation in Mithi

EXPRESSIONS OF GRATITUDE AND RESPECT

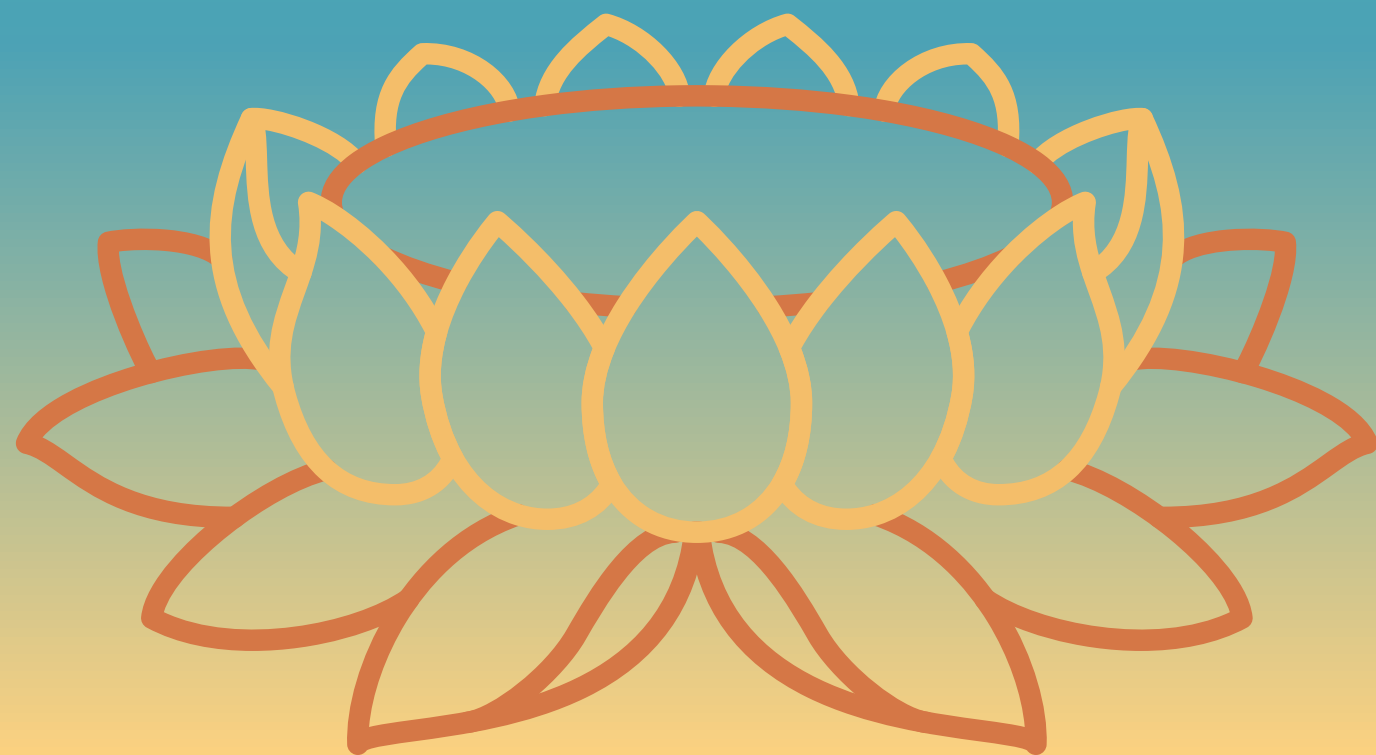

In recognition of Sister Bhawna's visit, the Mithi BK family presented her with a beautifully prepared gift. Community leaders and temple representatives also expressed their appreciation for her presence. The atmosphere remained deeply respectful and emotionally uplifting, showcasing Mithi's genuine hospitality and strong spiritual culture.

Welcome by Local Leadership

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FROM THE HINDU MANDIR COMMITTEE PRESIDENT

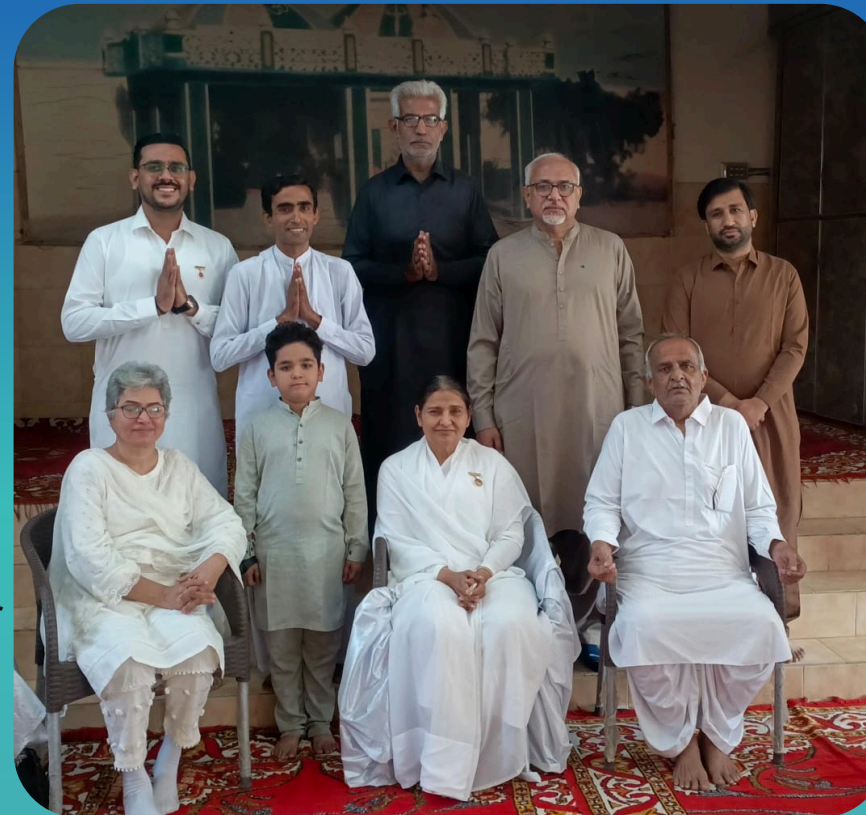

DURING THE PROGRAM IN MITHI, MR. KRISHAN SHARMA, PRESIDENT OF THE PAKISTAN HINDU MANDIR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE, FORMALLY WELCOMED SISTER BHAWNA. HIS PRESENCE ADDED SIGNIFICANCE TO THE EVENT AND REFLECTED THE STRONG RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE BK ORGANISATION AND LOCAL HINDU COMMUNITY LEADERS. THE WELCOME UNDERSCORED THE IMPORTANCE OF INTERFAITH HARMONY IN THE REGION.

Islamkot Programs

SEPARATE SESSIONS FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN

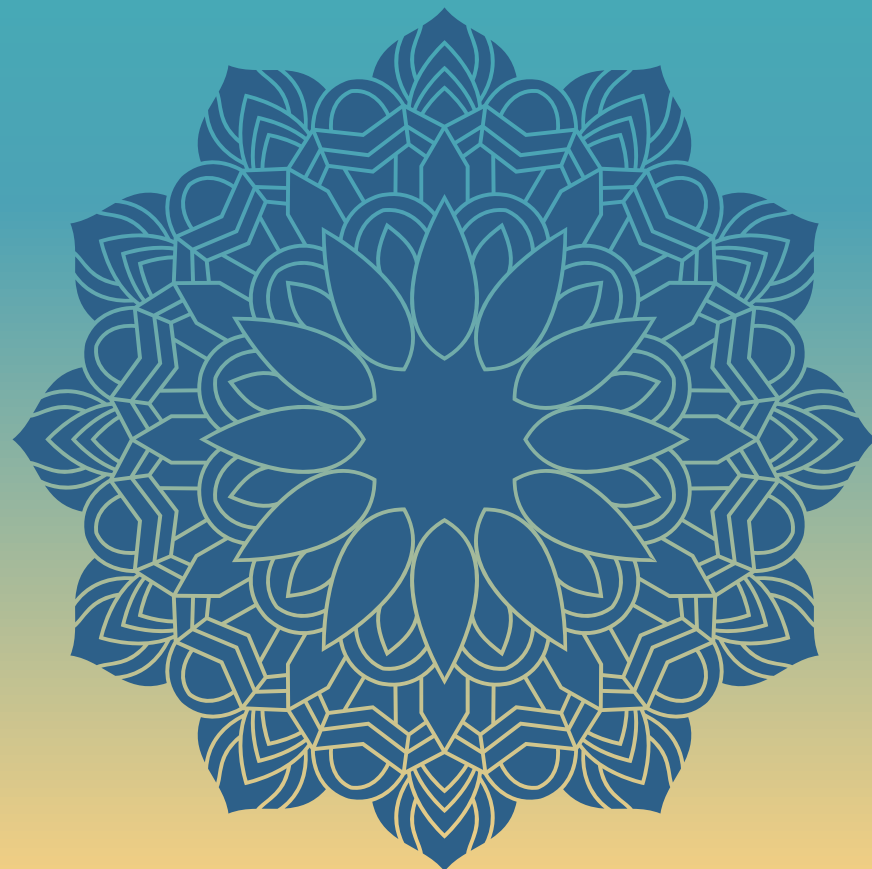

On 25 November, Sister Bhawna visited Islamkot, where the local BK family organised two dedicated sessions one for ladies and one for gentlemen under the theme "Incarnation of God Shiva." Both sessions were conducted with great care and received with equal enthusiasm. The people of Islamkot extended their warm hospitality, inviting her to visit various temples and share blessings with local devotees.

Gifts and Recognition in Islamkot

A GESTURE OF HONOUR FROM THE HINDU PANCHAYAT

At the Islamkot program, Mr. Heeralal Butani presented a special gift on behalf of the Hindu Panchayat to honor Sister Bhawna's visit. His gesture reflected the deep respect and gratitude that the local community felt. The visit strengthened ties between the BK family and the Hindu Panchayat, creating opportunities for further collaboration.

Overall Impact of the Visit

STRENGTHENING INTERFAITH HARMONY AND SPIRITUAL OUTREACH

Across all four cities, Sister Bhawna's visit created a strong ripple of positivity and spiritual engagement. The programs fostered interfaith harmony, encouraged meditation for world peace, and expanded connections between the Brahma Kumaris and local Hindu communities. The exchange of gifts, the sincere hospitality, and the active participation of local families demonstrated the deep impact of the visit on both community relations and spiritual awareness.

Appreciation and Future Steps

ACKNOWLEDGING SUPPORT AND CONTINUING THE JOURNEY

The success of the visit was made possible through the dedication of the BK families and volunteers in Karachi, Hyderabad, Mithi, and Islamkot, as well as the thoughtful contributions of local Hindu leaders. Moving ahead, creating a photographic record of the visit, circulating an official report, and planning follow-up events will help maintain this momentum and further strengthen the foundation of peace, spirituality, and shared understanding.
