

Jewels of India – Bharat Ki Shaan, Bharat Ka Abhiman
A Soulful Celebration at The Ashok Hotel
18th February 2026 | New Delhi

In an atmosphere of dignity, gratitude and elevated consciousness, Jewels of India – Bharat Ki Shaan, Bharat Ka Abhiman unfolded beautifully on 18th February 2026 at the iconic The Ashok, New Delhi.

Rajyogini Vedanti Didi receiving a special felicitation from Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, Hon'ble Union Minister of Culture and Tourism, Government of India

Rajyogini Sr Vedanti Ji, Director of Africa, Brahma Kumaris, graciously participated in the event and extended her invaluable spiritual support and blessings, adding a deeply elevated and soulful dimension to the evening.

The gathering was not merely a formal launch, but a powerful reminder that when individuals live with values, the nation shines.

The Book – A Living Tribute to the Spirit of Bharat

Jewels of India – Bharat Ki Shaan, Bharat Ka Abhiman is a sacred offering — a celebration of souls who quietly and consistently uphold the values of integrity, service, resilience and love for the nation. This volume celebrates inspirational stories and real-life heroes — Bharatiyas who quietly shape communities, preserve timeless values, and carry India's light in their hearts across continents.

Each story in this edition reflects more than success; it reflects sanskars, courage through challenges, and commitment to a higher purpose. Beautifully crafted, the book stands as a bridge between generations — preserving not only achievements, but the spiritual essence behind them.

The evening radiated the collective feeling that when one soul rises with pure intention, Bharat rises with them.

May the jewels of Bharat continue to shine and inspire generations to come.

Om Shanti.
